WHITT CEMETERY IN DALLAS COUNTY ADDED TO ALABAMA HISTORIC CEMETERY REGISTER

The Alabama Historical Commission (AHC) recently added Whitt Cemetery in Beloit to the Alabama Historic Cemetery Register.

“The cemetery register is a prestigious listing of historic cemeteries in Alabama,” said Lee Anne Wofford, cemetery program coordinator. “The AHC considers the notable historic cemeteries in this register to be particularly worthy of preservation and appreciation, and therefore deserving of this special recognition.”

This is the seventh cemetery in Dallas County listed on the Alabama Historic Cemetery Register, which features 313 cemeteries statewide.

Whitt Cemetery is associated with Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church and contains eighteen burials, the earliest of which dates to 1964. This is an important cemetery to the Beloit community. Rosa G. Whitt, noted Dallas County educator, writer, and volunteer is buried here. Mr. Arlue Whitt, who served as a Private in the US Army, World War II, is also buried here.

The Alabama Historical Commission administers the Alabama Historic Cemetery Program that gives aid to the general public, government officials, civic groups, and others in identifying, documenting, registering, and conserving Alabama’s historic cemeteries.

The Alabama Historic Cemetery Register officially recognizes and honors family and community cemeteries that were established at least 40 years ago.

Listing in the state cemetery register is an honorary designation imposing no restrictions on property owners. State law protects all cemeteries from willful desecration and destruction.

To protect, preserve, and interpret Alabama’s historic places is the mission of the Alabama Historical Commission, the State Historic Preservation Office.
